Amazing! Thank you for clearly caring about the students and helping us get through it. I learned a lot from you, and always felt as though I could approach you with questions. You're a model for how I want to TF!

She clearly had a lot of passion for the subject and wanted to make sure we were all getting the most out of the class. This did not always translate to clear and straightforward teaching, with the sections being conducted at a rushed pace, and often times the feedback/help during office hours was too much of a light touch.
